Hundreds air their dismay over Witney leisure centre

MORE than 400 people have taken to social media in a bid to improve the state of Witney's Windrush Leisure Centre.

The temperature of the pool, cleanliness and customer service at the Witan Way centre were among the top complaints aired on Facebook.

The Campaign for a Better Leisure Centre for Witney was launched by Abby Jones last month and now has 403 members calling for an upgrade and better service.

Mum-of-two Ms Jones said: "I've lived in Witney for three years and I've come into one problem after another with the leisure centre.

"One of the main issues is communication, but one of the main concerns driving people away is the cold showers.

"Enough is enough. We keep being told it's being dealt with."

Ms Jones, a full time mum, takes her daughters Miya, five, and Lila, three, to swimming lessons there every week.

The centre is owned by West Oxfordshire District Council but run by leisure firm Better, part of GLL.

It has a gym, six lane swimming pool and a sports hall.

Better also runs four centres in the Vale of White Horse including Abingdon's White Horse Leisure Centre and eight centres in South Oxfordshire.

District councillor Duncan Enright (Lab) said: "The leisure and sports facilities in West Oxfordshire are the most modest in the county. Abingdon, Banbury, Didcot: all of these areas have better facilities.

"I think it's the district council not keeping pace with growth in the district. The Facebook group has been great for articulating the concerns people have had over the winter.

"But there's a bigger issue about the quality of the leisure and sport facilities in West Oxfordshire."

Cllr Enright said he will be pushing West Oxfordshire District Council to expand the centre in the coming months.

Residents raised their concerns at a users' forum in Witney on Monday held by GLL at its leisure site in Gordon Way.

In a poll on the group of 325 respondents, 67 said they were most concerned about cleanliness, 59 said shower temperatures and 55 said pool temperature.

Activist's qualms over benefit cuts

By Alex Ballinger

AN OXFORD benefit cuts campaigner has said she doubts the motives behind the Iain Duncan Smith's resignation and the pledge of a U-turn on planned benefit cuts.

Cathie Wood said she does not trust the Government's announcement on Monday that there would be no further slashing of the welfare budget for the disabled after the Work and Pensions secretary announced he would be stepping down from the post on Friday.

Ms Wood first began campaigning for the protection of support for disabled people after her brother Mark, 44, died in 2013, months after his benefits were stopped.

The 50-year-old from North Oxford said: "It shows the callousness and incompetence.

"They seem to attack the people that are most vulnerable."

Ms Wood also said she feared the government would attempt to revive the scrapped cuts further down the line.

Speaking about Mr Duncan Smith's resignation Ms Wood added: "I'm amazed he resigned and I doubt his motives.

"He had every chance to resign before."

The former head of the Department for Work and Pensions announced on Friday evening he would step down over the proposed cuts in a letter to the Prime Minister, David Cameron.

It said: "I have for some time and rather reluctantly come to believe that the latest changes to benefits to the disabled and the context in which they've been made are a compromise too far."

"While they are defensible in narrow terms, given the continuing deficit, they are not defensible in the way they were placed within a Budget that benefits higher earning taxpayers. They should have instead been part of a wider process to engage others in finding the best way to better focus resources on those most in need."

Plans were announced to reform personal independent payments (PIP) for people with long term ill health last Wednesday but the new Work and Pensions Secretary Stephen Crabb announced the Government would not go ahead with the cuts.

Speaking in parliament he said: "I can tell the house that we will not be going ahead with changes to PIP that had been put forward.

"We have no further plans to make welfare savings beyond the very substantial savings legislated for by parliament two weeks ago."

Ms Wood's brother Mark died at his home in Bampton of starvation in August 2013 after his employment and support allowance was stopped five months earlier.

Mr Wood suffered from complex mental health problems but was found to be fit to work after an independent assessment.

Rescue work to find 'Didcot three' starts

A RESCUE operation to find the missing three men trapped in the wreckage of Didcot Power Station started on Saturday, almost one month after the boiler room collapsed.

Police and the Government's Health and Safety Executive (HSE) announced last Wednesday machinery and extra staff would be moving in to renewed efforts to find those trapped.

Ken Cresswell, 57, John Shaw, 61, from Rotherham and Christopher Huxtable, 34, from Swansea have been missing in the rubble since the disaster on February 23.

Thames Valley Police spokesman Connie Primmer confirmed yesterday: "Work started on Saturday."

"There is no other update at the moment."

Posting in the 'Help the Didcot three' Facebook group, Timothy John Jones said on Saturday: "Machines are working as fast as they can."

"Colesmans, police, HSE, and RWE are working together to get the guys out. "This is not an easy task."

The HSE approved a rescue plan by site owners RWE Npower to begin a proper search of the site.

One person died, five were injured and 47 were treated for dust inhalation when part of the coal-fire plant collapsed last month as workers were on site decommissioning the station, which stopped running in 2013.

Football club praised for disabled team at West Oxon sport awards

A WITNEY football team has plenty to chant about after taking home the 'club of the year' prize at the fifth West Oxfordshire Sports Awards for setting up a disabled team.

Tower Hill FC was among 45 award winners at the awards ceremony at Witney Lakes Resort last Wednesday.

Winners were gifted grants of up to £1,250 by West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC).

Chairman of Tower Hill, Liam Walsh, said: "We are delighted to be recognised - it means so much to the players, coaches and supporters, and sponsors and we will use it to continue the development of facilities and opportunities for players."

The team, based in Burford Road, launched their disability wing last year and now have over 300 players signed up across their 25 adult and youth teams.

Awards were also handed out to people across the region for a range of disciplines including synchronised swimming, roller hockey and kayaking.

WODC cabinet member for leisure, James Mills, said: "It was wonderful to meet so many talented and inspirational individuals. Every one of them richly deserves their award, whether they are starting out on the path of a potentially brilliant sporting career or have been working in the community for years to improve the lives of others.

"Congratulations to them all." The West Oxfordshire Sports Awards are hosted annually by WODC and GLL Sports Foundation.

This year's 'coach of the year' award went to Jeremy Bristoe from Witney Wolves' special educational need rugby team, for children from the age of seven.

Mr Bristoe said: "This is absolutely fantastic and great for the youngsters I work with who are a big part of the club's success."

"Every Sunday I see them continue to blossom and achieve."

The team are part of Witney Rugby Football Club in Hailey Road and Mr Bristoe collected his award alongside club captain, 17-year-old James Paul.

The 'unsung hero' for 2016 went to founding member of Cartertown FC, Glynn Yates.

Leader vows to lobby for better

• From front page

Customer service was also a key concern for 43 users, while the centre not being big enough to serve the town had 39 votes.

West Oxfordshire District Council's cabinet member for leisure, James Mills, said: "Recent problems have centered largely around the swimming pool changing rooms, GLL explained how these were being addressed and what progress had been made."

"GLL accepted the need to improve communication at the Windrush Leisure Centre and said they are now looking at new ways of engaging with users."

Sherria Hind posted in the group last Wednesday: "Used the centre twice over the weekend and on both occasions the air temperatures in the communal changing area along with the shower temperatures were once again unacceptably low. As an adult, using the facilities is unpleasant, for a child with much lower tolerance of temperature extremes it is completely unacceptable."

The Guardian could not get through to GLL's marketing and communications team despite calling six times and sending an email.

Cop praised for saving suicidal woman's life

• PCSO Claire Chavagnon being presented with a commendation by Superintendent Rory Freeman

A HUMBLE police officer has recalled the dramatic moment she saved the life of a young suicidal woman who tried to jump from a bridge near Cumnor last October.

PCSO Claire Chavagnon, based at Abingdon Police Station with Thames Valley Police was awarded a commendation for exceptional bravery at a special ceremony at Henley Town Hall in Henley on Friday.

By Loughlan Campbell

The 26-year-old was handed the award by South and Vale LPA Commander Rory Freeman for the role she played in a fear for welfare incident in Cumnor.

She told the Guardian: "I was on patrol in Botley when I got a call that a young woman was walking around in Cumnor and that someone had rang to say that the person wanted to commit suicide.

"I spotted her on the Oxford Road and began to catch up with her but she didn't stop for me.

"By the time I caught up with her, she'd reached the bridge and was climbing over the rails but I managed to quickly grab hold of her and bring her back."

After struggling with the woman by the bridge, PCSO Chavagnon then had to sprint into the road to stop her from being run over on the Oxford Road alongside the bridge. The Reading-born officer, who has been with Thames Valley Police for two and a half years, said of the incident: "My heart was racing at the time and the adrenaline was really pumping.

"It is something that will definitely live long in the memory for me and I take great pride in the fact that I was able to step in and help her. I was just doing what any other police officer would have done." Supt Freeman said: "I am extremely proud that our officers perform so well under high pressure and sometimes dangerous circumstances."

Zika fight gets WHO boost

A DIDCOT firm has been backed by the World Health Organisation (WHO) for its methods combating the spread of the Zika virus.

Biotech company Oxitec, based at Milton Park, is undertaking pioneering research into tackling the disease by using mosquitos altered in their labs, which are then released into affected areas.

The WHO gave a 'positive recommendation' in support of Oxitec's research method on Monday, also noting that their methods were a 'reactive approach to sustained, proactive control intervention.'

Aedes aegypti mosquitos spread the virus, which has been linked to serious birth defects and has spread rapidly through the Americas since an outbreak in May last year.

Oxitec breeds mosquitos in its Milton Park facility and injects the eggs with a gene, which means the offspring of that mosquito will die before adulthood. It is a method that aims to shrink the population of Aedes aegypti mosquitos and limit the spread of the virus.

The company currently have one mosquito production facility in the city of Campinas in Brazil and are building another facility in Piracicaba following successful trial periods in the city.

Hayden Parry, chief executive officer of Oxitec said: "Their recommendation is a strong vote of confidence in the Oxitec mosquito as a potential tool in the fight against Zika."

Council's 'pride' after award win

A COUNCIL has scooped an award for its innovative housing scheme to create the biggest self-build project in the UK.

Cherwell District Council, which covers Bicester, Kidlington and Banbury, won best Housing Initiative for its Build! programme which oversees the regeneration of run-down buildings to create new homes and is leading a 1,900 home development at Graven Hill, Bicester.

The council also won most Entrepreneurial Council for its work in creating new income streams in light of government austerity cuts.

Both awards were presented to the council's leader Barry Wood at the Local Government Chronicle (LGC) awards in London last Wednesday.

Mr Wood said "We take a great pride in delivering more than just a traditional district council. We have embraced the period of austerity and in doing so challenged our staff and elected members to think outside of the box. We also highlighted our reduced reliance on central government for income through the ability to secure significant funding and the establishment of commercial trading companies."

Decision made for new Bicester perimeter road

• The road would run close to Wendlebury

A NEW south east link road around Bicester will be built nearer to the village of Wendlebury, a council has decided.

Land will be set aside just outside the village for a new highway called the South East Perimeter Road, connecting the A41 with Graven Hill and the Aylesbury Road.

Two options were put before Oxfordshire County Council; the other was to build a new road from the roundabout with Vendee Drive.

The idea is to push non-local traffic on the link road to alleviate town centre congestion.

Council officers recommended option two, the proposal near Wendlebury, which was approved last Thursday.

A new road was deemed necessary due to growth in employment and housing in and around

By Jayne Smith

Bicester, a council report said.

The council is also looking at creating a new junction south of junction nine on the M40 as a 'long term solution for strategic movements between the motorway network and the A41.'

If approved, the perimeter road would not be required.

Wendlebury Parish Council raised concerns over the impact of the link road on residents.

Parish council chairman Julian Cordy said the council was 'not happy' with the result.

He said: "A lot of factors make us think this is not the right decision, the route is completely illogical, it takes up the most land and is the most expensive."

"The decision they made was made for route safeguarding and it doesn't mean any more than that."

He claims the consultation results are 'skewed' as people from outside the area took part.

A total of 525 people responded to a public consultation last November/December, with 62 per cent, including Cherwell District Council, supporting option two, the council said.

Bicester Town Council raised concerns about the 'rate of growth of Bicester' and was concerned there was 'undue haste' in deciding the route.

Another option was to expand Boundary Way to a dual carriageway, but it was deemed 'less effective'.

The decision was made by David Nimmo Smith, the county council's cabinet member for the environment.

Fellow councillors have the opportunity to call it in.

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Base hosts Flywheel Fest

HISTORIC cars and aircraft including a Bristol Blenheim Bomber and Tiger Moth will bring a former wartime RAF base to life this summer.

Tickets have gone on sale for the second annual historical and aviation show - the Bicester Flywheel Festival.

It takes place at the UK's best preserved Second World War bomber station, Bicester Heritage, Buckingham Road, on June 20 and 21.

Taking to the air will be the country's last Bristol Blenheim Bomber, which entered service at the air field in 1938.

It will fly alongside the Great War Display Team, who plan to field ten World War One types in a "swirling 'dogfight' display".

On the ground people will be able to get up close to vintage vehicles including pre-war Alvis, Bentley and Bugatti racers, as well as later machines such as Aston Martins, Vanwalls, and Maseratis.

A spokesman said: "Military vehicle enthusiasts and re-enactor groups are planning to take full advantage of Bicester airfield's unique 'timewarp' background of hangars, air raid shelters and wartime buildings, which remained barely altered between the end of World War Two and the site's acquisition by Bicester Heritage at the end of 2013."

Mum's warning over hidden pins piercing baby changing mats

• The drawing pins in the changing mat (picture by Hayley Turner)

TWO babies were pierced by drawing pins hidden in a changing mat at an Oxfordshire village hall last Friday.

Mum Hayley Turner warned parents on Facebook to check baby mats after finding the metal pins in Standlake Village Hall after changing her son's nappy.

Samuel started screaming after she laid him down to change him.

Mrs Turner said: "I dismissed it as him being tired, cold and grumpy so I changed him as quickly as possible so I could give him a cuddle and calm him down."

"It turns out some lowlife scum though it would be 'fun' to deliberately put drawing pins in the bottom of the change mat."

"And because he isn't old enough to tell me it hurt, he now looks like a pin cushion with five holes in total."

Her Facebook post has since been shared over 104,000 times. Mrs Turner said Samuel had since recovered from the ordeal and forgotten about the whole thing.

By Alex Ballinger

She added: "If it happened to me it could happen to someone else, so I thought I'd spread a little word of warning to prevent it happening in the future."

Thames Valley Police spokesman Connie Primmer said: "Thames Valley Police was informed of an incident on March 18 in which two babies were injured in the village hall in Rack End, Standlake."

"It was reported that drawing pins left in a changing mat had injured the babies."

"Police are investigating this assault and in the meantime safety advice has been given to those involved."

Commenting on the post, Siobhan Webb said: "Wow that is bad."

"I'm speechless that some sick person would do this to a baby changing mat."

Oxford doctor is struck off the medical register

AN Oxford doctor who denied in court that six babies died from being shaken has been struck from the medical register for giving misleading evidence as an expert witness during trials.

Dr Waney Squier was found to have been 'deliberately misleading' and 'irresponsible' by a medical tribunal, which ruled on Monday she is no longer a registered doctor with the General Medical Council (GMC).

Between 2008 and 2010 Dr Squier gave evidence in six court cases of the deaths of babies under two years old and testified they had not been caused by inflicted injuries, in contradiction to a number of experts in the field.

By Alex Ballinger

The tribunal in Manchester ruled against the 67-year-old and also found she was giving evidence in areas she was not an expert.

Chief executive of the GMC Niall Dickson said: "This case was not about the science - it was about Dr Squier's conduct as a doctor who was acting as an expert witness.

"It was brought following criticism of her evidence by no fewer than four senior judges presiding over some of the most serious matters the courts have to deal with."

He added: "If it becomes clear that a doctor has lost objectivity - by cherry-picking facts or research to suit their views or by working outside their area of expertise - that is a problem which we must look at."

Dr Squier was a consultant neuropathologist at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital until proceedings started last October.

Spokesman for Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Kaelum Neville, said the tribunal was about her acting as an independent expert witness and not as a doctor at the hospital.

But he added: "There will be a formal procedure that the trust will need to go through with Dr Squier to examine the consequences of today's judgement on her employment at the trust."

Dr Squier has the right to appeal against the decision.

Terror robber jailed

A MASKED robber who used a syringe and meat cleaver to rob almost £3,000 from supermarkets in Oxfordshire has been jailed for five years.

Lee Rudman, 37, of Blenheim Drive in Witney was sentenced at Oxford Crown Court on March 8 for robbery and two counts of theft after pleading guilty at the same court on February 15.

Investigating officer, Detective Constable Paddy O'Grady, said: "The sentence Rudman received reflects the serious nature of the offences and his conviction demonstrates Thames Valley Police is committed to investigating such offences thoroughly to ensure offenders are identified and brought to face the consequences of their actions."

Rudman raided Tesco Express in Fettiplace Road, Witney on August 5 last year wearing a balaclava, gloves and armed with a syringe.

Staff fled to a safe area and Rudman stole £1073.22 from tills.

Four days later Rudman targeted Tesco Express in Cogges Hill, Witney wielding a meat cleaver and escaped with £872.62.

On August 9 he struck again at the Co-op store in Shipton Road, Milton Under Wychwood, armed with a screwdriver as the shop was closing.

After threatening staff he made off with around £1,000.

Rudman was charged on August 22 last year with the Co-op theft and was charged with the other offences on November 20.

Kids are all smiles for trophy's visit

• Robbie Cundy and AJ George with Brooke Merner, nine, from Milton Keynes.

• AJ George with eight-month-old Evie from Watlington, who was visiting a sibling

AN ECSTATIC five-year-old from Bampton about to undergo his fourth operation could not stop smiling as he got up close to the Johnstone's Paint Trophy.

It was touring Oxford Children's Hospital wards to drum up excitement for Oxford United's Wembley Stadium clash with Burnley FC next Sunday.

Oxford United first team players AJ George and Robbie Cundy met about 10 children at Robin's, Melanie's and Tom's wards last Thursday.

William Gent has congenital kypho-scoliosis, and was one of the lucky few to meet the U's stars and have a picture taken with the trophy.

His mum, Katie Gent, 37, said: "I haven't seen him smile this much in some time. The trophy and the players have definitely brightened up the ward."

"It is so nice of them to come down and give all the kids a boost. William is not usually this excited so perhaps he's going to be a new fan."

The Bampton Primary School pupil's condition means his spine is not growing straight. He is in hospital for a fourth operation.

Katie added: "There is

By Loughlan Campbell

no doubt that he will remember this when he goes home as one of the brighter days in his stay here."

U's midfielder George, from Marston, and defender Cundy, from Abingdon, visited the wards to meet the youngsters in their beds with the multi-coloured ribboned trophy and mascot Olly the Ox.

The footballers said it was a 'special' occasion for them to put a smile on children's faces.

George, 19, spent two weeks at the hospital himself when he was 13 and contracted Kawasaki disease, causing his glands to tightly swell up.

He told the Guardian: "These kids are in a hard situation and if we can give something back for them to smile about than it's something that I'm really keen to do."

"I remember a lot from my time here on the wards and how much a boost people can provide for the kids

• William Gent, five, with AJ George and Robbie Cundy

so I'm delighted to come down and give these kids a special day.

"I've never seen a kid smile like William has and I hope we've made his day."

Cundy, 18, added: "I've never been to the children's hospital before so it was a delight to come down and see all the smiles on their faces."

"It's the smiles that make this all worthwhile."

After its appearance at the hospital, the trophy was also paraded at The Garden Florists in Headington and The Cornfield Bakery in Wheatley, before the silverware went on display at Templars Square in Cowley.

Woman sexually assaulted in fish and chip shop

A WOMAN in her twenties was sexually assaulted by a man who forcibly kissed her on her cheek and lips in an Oxford fish and chip shop.

Police launched an appeal last Friday after the attack in Oxford Fish and Chips in Barns Road, Cowley, on Monday, March 7 at about 4.30pm.

Officers released a CCTV image (below) of a man they would like to speak to in connection with the offence.

Investigating officer PC Lee Gilbert said: "The incident was distressing for the victim and so I would also urge anyone who has any information about what happened to report this to police."

"We are investigating the circumstances of this sexual assault and officers require the public's help in identifying the person shown in the CCTV images."

Teenager launches charity challenge

CHELSEA Lakeman suffers from a devastating disease that means she needs round-the-clock care and is unable to do anything without the help of her family.

The 17-year-old has been going to Oxford's world-famous children's and young peoples' hospice Helen and Douglas House for respite care since she was seven.

By Alex Ballinger

Now Chelsea and her mum Rose Lakeman are bidding to give something back by fronting a new charity challenge called the Riverside Stomp.

Mrs Lakeman said: "Chelsea has so much fun there."

"They can give her things we can't. I can't imagine life without it."

"It's good to talk to people in the same situation. Please support in keeping the charities going for families like mine."

Chelsea has a degenerative disease called metachromatic leukodystrophy, which destroys white matter in the nervous system, particularly in the brain and spinal cord, causing her to lose the ability to talk, walk, see, hear, and think.

Helen and Douglas House, in Magdalen Road, offers end of life and respite care.

Of every £1 it costs to run the hospice 88p is raised through donations, and the services cost £5.5 million to run every year.

The Riverside Stomp will be held on Saturday, May 21, and see walkers hike along the Thames Path from either to Abingdon - eight miles - or to Wallingford - 22 miles to Oxford.

Signing up costs £20 and walkers are encouraged to raise minimum of £70 to help fund the specialist care and support at Helen and Douglas House.

Community and events fundraising manager at the hospice, Lauren Ryan, said: "This event is an exciting first for Helen and Douglas House."

"It gives people an opportunity to take in the most picturesque parts of Oxfordshire."

Colleague Bobby Higson said: "We wanted to set up a charity challenge event."

"We've had a lot of sign ups so far but we're always looking for more. We've got a lot of staff and volunteers taking part."

Headteacher is jailed for sex attack on girls

THE former headteacher of an Oxfordshire primary school was jailed for four years and four months on Friday for sexually assaulting two schoolgirls.

Christopher Field, of Green Lane in Chieveley, was sentenced by Judge Zoe Smith at Oxford Crown Court after being found guilty by a jury on Thursday, March 10.

He assaulted two girls under 13 while he was a headteacher and they were pupils at Woodcote Primary School near Wallingford between September 2010 and November 2011.

Field, 47, was handed a three-year jail term for sexually assaulting a girl under 13 by touching, a one-year jail term for another count of the same offence, and four months for making indecent images of a child. The sentences are to run consecutively.

He pleaded not guilty but was convicted by a jury of eight men and four women after a 13-day trial at the same court.

By Loughlan Campbell

Detective Constable Sarah Berry, from Oxford's child abuse investigation unit, said: "This was a difficult case involving a headteacher using his position of trust and authority to groom and abuse two young girls who did not properly understand what was happening at the time."

"They have shown great courage in coming forward. Both have been consistent and shown great determination in giving their evidence at court."

"I am so sad for them that Field did not admit his guilt and thereby could have spared them the pain of reliving the ordeal in court."

Field was also placed on the sex offenders' register for life.

Judge Smith also ordered that two further counts, one of sexual assault and one of causing a girl a girl under 13 to engage in sexual activity, are to lie on file - after the jury failed to reach verdicts.

He was arrested in September 2014 and charged last May.

A friend of one of the victims told the jury the girl had confided in her over a year after leaving the school and that she had been left 'borderline suicidal' as a result of the abuse.

She told the court during the trial: "She mentioned him taking her to his office during lunch and break times."

"She just mentioned it was inappropriate but she did not think it was wrong. She was being told to do things. He called her special."

Another friend of the same victim told the jury the girl contacted her via Facebook, saying: "He was doing terrible things to me."

"I never said anything because it was difficult and I did not think anyone would believe me and it took a long time before I understood that it was wrong."

Valuables burgled

OXFORD: An iPad, bank cards and car keys were among the valuables stolen in an overnight burglary in Summertown last Thursday.

Offenders got into the house in Elizabeth Jennings Way through an insecure front door.

A mobile phone, passport, alcohol, a handbag containing cash and house keys were also stolen.

If anyone has any information, call police on 101.

Pet rescues fall

OXON: The number of pets rescued by the RSPCA in Oxfordshire fell between 2014 and 2015, the charity revealed yesterday.

Rescues and collections fell from 1,138 in 2014 to 1,070 in 2015.

Dogs were rescued almost twice as often as cats in 2015 with 647 compared with 332.

Three people were convicted for animal cruelty last year compared with one in 2014.

Funding on offer

OXON: Vale of White Horse District Council is offering £200,000 in funding to local projects.

Cash can go towards new skateparks, play areas or upgrading sports pavilions and buying defibrillators.

Previous projects including redeveloping Harwell village hall and supporting carers in Wantage.

Applications can be submitted to Vale of White Horse District Council until May 6.

Council set up company to tackle housing crisis

OXFORD City Council is setting up a housing company to help ease the city's property crisis.

Councillors backed the plan at an Executive Board meeting last Thursday.

The company would develop new housing on council-owned land and buy affordable housing from developers on private land to rent homes out at an affordable price.

The company may secure 345 new homes to be built on the 885-home Barton Park estate.

And councillors are also discussing the option of transferring ownership of its 7,500 council-owned homes to the company.

This move would prevent them being sold under the central government's Right to Buy reforms, but would also need the permission of Communities Secretary Greg Clark.

A statement from the council said: "By acquiring sites and building houses, the company could influence the pace and type of house building in the city."

The council's Executive Board member for housing, Mike Rowley said: "The lack of housing supply, quality and choice is constraining economic growth in Oxford and is a significant barrier to our ambition to be a world class city for everyone."

The housing company would be a separate legal entity wholly owned by the council.

Link-up allows charity to launch night flights

By Katriona Ormiston

AN air ambulance helicopter that flies to emergencies across Oxfordshire has started nighttime operations for the first time.

Specially trained pilots with hi-tech night-vision goggles launched night flying operations last week.

And a nighttime merger between the air ambulance covering Oxfordshire, Thames Valley Air Ambulance, and Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance means the helicopters can now reach emergencies for 19 hours every day.

A doctor and paramedic crews on board can then treat seriously injured victims of incidents such as car crashes and take them to hospital from 7am until 2am the next day – an extra seven hours.

Thames Valley Air Ambulance chairman Sir Tim Jenner said: "Our teams work tirelessly each day and night; not only to deliver a unique life-saving service but to develop their knowledge and training to ensure we continue to advance on-scene patient care."

The two air ambulances, both run by charities, now stay operational in their respective counties for 12 hours every day and then take it in turns for 16 nights to cover the seven hour night-service for the whole of the central South region.

On average Thames Valley's red and yellow air ambulance flies to three or four missions a day, from its base at RAF Benson near Wallingford.

And since the charity was set up in 1999 it has responded to more than 15,500 emergencies.

The helicopters carry life-saving equipment including two state-of-the-art ultrasound devices, a blood transfusion kit and an immediate blood analyser.

CEO of Hampshire's air ambulance charity, Alex Lochrane, said: "Introducing night operations adds another dimension to our service, helping us to save lives and provide emergency medical support and transfer where and when it is most needed."

"We would not have been able to take this important step forward without the on going support we receive from the people, companies and organisations that support us, to whom we are and will always be very grateful."

Cash injection to help review Oxfordshire shake-up

PLANS to look at changing the political make-up of Oxfordshire could be given a £50,000 boost from Oxford City Council tonight.

The council's Executive Board is meeting tonight at Oxford Town Hall to consider offering the cash to help fund a review into plans to abolishing Oxfordshire County Council in order to save money so Oxford City Council could absorb their powers - becoming a unitary authority.

Oxford City Council, South Oxfordshire, Vale of White Horse, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell district councils last month announced the plan to create unitary authorities.

City council officer Caroline Green said in a report for the meeting: "The next step will be to jointly commission independent experts with our partners to produce detailed, costed plans for the preferred option."

If the councils' bid is accepted by Whitehall, Oxfordshire County Council would be dissolved.

Oxfordshire County Council objected to the plans.

It is expected that a full public consultation into the unitary authority ideas will take place this summer.

Report says less than half number of homes needed

HOUSE building targets of 100,000 for Oxfordshire are more than double what is needed, campaigners have warned.

An independent report commissioned by campaign group Need not Greed says 45,000 new houses are needed in Oxfordshire by 2031 to support job growth.

The figure is less than half the 100,000 houses earmarked by an independent report commissioned by Oxfordshire's district and city councils, called Oxfordshire's Strategic House Market Assessment (SHMA), by consultants GL Hearn.

Need not Greed was set up in January as a coalition of 30 Oxfordshire campaign groups - including Oxfordshire's Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE).

CPRE Oxfordshire director Helen Marshall said: "We are not saying that Oxfordshire shouldn't grow."

"But we do think there should be an open public debate about the level of additional growth our councils have signed up to, and the impact this may have on the county."

"Our main concern is that we

By Alex Ballinger

do not destroy Oxfordshire's rural character, which is what makes it such a great place to live and work in the first place."

Need not Greed's report, by independent consultant Alan Wenban-Smith, was published last Thursday in response to the SHMA published in March 2014.

But Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said: "There is no 'greed' involved here; just hard economic and demographic reality."

"And it is clearly part of the district plans that the pleasant rural character of the county can be maintained alongside economic development. The assumption about demographic growth and economic development were based on industry standard methodologies and were debated at length before an agreement was reached."

Need not Greed member Colin Thomas added: "These overall targets have never been subject to public consultation."

"So we are sacrificing our countryside, and putting our services and infrastructure under immense pressure, without meeting the real need."

Man behind bars for photos of children

A 43-YEAR-OLD man who made more than 3,000 indecent images of children and tried to arrange sexual activity with a young girl was jailed for five years at Oxford Crown Court on Friday.

Simone Veale, of Edmunds Road in Banbury, also emailed 42 indecent photos and videos of children to 23 other people.

Speaking after the sentencing, Thames Valley Police's investigating officer, Detective Sergeant Julia McDowall from the paedophile online investigation team said: "The judge recognised Veale is a danger to children and the sentence he received reflects the severity of his actions."

"Offences involving indecent images of children are not victim-less crime, the sharing of these images is the result of very serious offences against children having taken place and the further distribution of these images fuels such offences."

Veale made 2,349 pictures of children on a mobile phone between July 3, 2012, and March 27, 2014, and 677 images on a computer between February 27, 2003, and March 27, 2014.

Of these 42 images and videos were distributed to others between August 30, 2011, and March 11, 2014.

Between January 2, 2014, and March 13, 2014, Veale also tried to arrange or facilitate sexual activity with a girl under 13. Veale was convicted on February 3 after a three-day trial at the same court. He was also given six years extended licence.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9x9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3x3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Marilyn Cerrato, hearing aid user

Exceptional Hearing Aids From Widex – Available At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare

At Widex, we combine years of understanding with a natural curiosity in finding solutions to individual hearing loss. Our uncompromising approach to innovation has led to such advances as the world's first digital in-the-ear hearing aid, as well as our own revolutionary wireless technology.

However, hearing aids are more than the technology inside them. Not only should they help people hear better, they should be comfortable and easy to wear. We concentrate just as much on design of hearing aids as on technology to create a near-natural hearing experience.

We listen to and work closely with professionals and users alike as we build on more than five decades of leading research and development in overcoming hearing loss.

“WIDEX MAKES THE BEST HEARING AIDS. IT'S THAT SIMPLE”

Laura Gross, hearing aid user

Try Widex Unique Hearing Aids At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare

Unique is the new exceptional hearing aid from Widex.

With Unique, you get a much richer and well-rounded sound; and you can enjoy louder sounds with comfort, such as the cheering of a crowd at a football match or the sudden sound changes when watching a film.

Widex believe that all hearing aids should give you the ability to understand speech. Speech understanding is often compromised in noisy environments, but new technology that preserves the human voice means that with Unique you can actively enjoy conversations, whether you're in a crowded restaurant with family or at a noisy concert with friends.

New Horizons in Hearing

The new hearing aid from Widex pushes the barriers of performance. WIDEX UNIQUE takes digital processing to a new level to capture more sound than any other hearing aid on the market and is now available at Keith Donaghy Hearingcare.

I AM UNIQUE

WIDEX UNIQUE™
 LIVE LIFE LARGE

Supreme sound quality in any environment.

Hearing soft sounds is particularly important for users but even more important is determining which are useful and which are not. UNIQUE is the only hearing aid that ensures important soft sounds are maintained and unwanted soft sounds are removed.

The powerful soft level noise reduction system reduces the soft sounds users do not want to hear while retaining the audibility of soft speech. And it determines the difference between speech and noise (particularly background noise) without any compromise in speech intelligibility or comfort.

The best wind noise reduction in the industry.

For users to truly enjoy being outdoors, it is essential that they can hear clearly no matter the conditions. The wind noise attenuation system in UNIQUE provides users with documented improvement in hearing speech and environmental sounds in the presence of wind noise.

Full connectivity

All unique hearing aids are compatible with the DEX range of communication accessories that provide full connectivity to mobile phones, remote controls, TVs and more.

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

Keith Donaghy warns prospective customers to be careful about misleading and inaccurate special offers and to consider that "you get what you pay for". He said that Keith Donaghy Hearing care is an independent company and can offer completely impartial advice and an aftercare service that is vital to make sure things run smoothly for the future of the client and their hearing aid system.

'No private jet yet!'

HIGHLY heralded folk singer and multi-instrumentalist Bella Hardy is at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot next Friday, April 1.

With the coveted title of Folk Singer of the Year 2014 in her back pocket, Bella is back in Oxfordshire on the final leg of her 'With the Dawn' album tour.

Despite having performed at festivals since the age of 13 and a growing list of accolades to her name, Bella joked: "I've not got my own private jet yet."

She added: "Some days are easy and some days are not."

"Sometimes I get to focus on writing and music creation and that's magic but many days I'm doing the general admin of running a small business which is terribly unglamorous."

Bella is no stranger to the Cornerstone, having performed there over three consecutive years.

She was born in Oxfordshire but grew up in the Peak District, but says she loves coming back.

"My parents ran the Youth Hostel in Charlbury and we moved up to the Peak District when I was only a one-year-old, but I loved to visit."

"My dad was in the Charlbury Morris team, and one of my earliest memories

By James Richings

is coming back to watch them dance.

"I think I played the tambourine, but my imaginative mind might have made that up."

Named BBC Radio 2 Folk Singer of the Year in 2014, Bella released her latest album 'With the Dawn' exactly one year ago on Wednesday.

It has become her second most successful after previous album, 'Battleplan'.

Bella explained there are no hard and fast rules she sticks to when writing and recording a new album.

She said: "I never try to write or create in a specific style or genre."

"Since I was a teenager, I've been performing folk music, fiddling and singing, and that comes largely from my love of traditional ballads."

"I think that will always be present in my music. But everything else I've listened to seeps in too; Tom Waits, Joni Mitchell, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald."

"I'm a classic mishmash of musical thoughts. I try to write music that's honest and connects people."

The gig starts at 8pm at tickets cost £15, or £13.50 concessions.

Style a masterpiece with Mister Maker

ARTS and crafts TV programme Mister Maker will be brought to life on stage giving children a chance to let loose their imagination and help produce a piece of art.

Oxford's New Theatre is hosting 'Mister Maker Live' for two shows next Wednesday, March 30.

CBeebies' Mister Maker himself, Phil Gallagher, will be guiding the process through with entertaining sketches as children help make suggestions to create the bigger picture.

Phil told the Guardian: "This is an arts and crafts programme where we wanted to put a lot of singing and dancing in."

"I really want to make it enjoyable for everyone because CBeebies is a wonderful channel, and with lots of audience participation where they can go onto the stage and be part of the show, it's good fun if you're one, 41 or 101!"

"There is also a massive screen on stage where we encourage people to shout out and get involved, so we have a plan to stick to."

By James Richings

Mister Maker aired on CBeebies from 2007 to 2009 and became one of the channel's popular and successful shows.

The children's show has since been adapted in numerous countries including the US, Austria and some Latin American nations.

Phil was nominated for a BAFTA Award in 2009 for his role on the show and hopes the live tour will be a huge success.

"It's really important to me to be practising all kinds of children's shows and I'm in a lot of pantomimes so all ages of the audience should like the show," Phil said.

"Expect the unexpected."

Phil added: "I love my job. I really, really love it."

"I love seeing the kids' faces light up when the shapes run out, and seeing the parents enjoying themselves as well."

"I can honestly say I am privileged, lucky and proud."

The two shows start at 13.30pm and 4.30pm.

Tickets cost £16.65.

'Heaven will be a bit of a comedown'

MONTY Python, Oscar Wilde, Noel Coward, Stephen Fry, Alan Bennett: names now synonymous with English wit and our world famous (or notorious) sense of humour.

And any conversation on British theatre would be entirely lacking wholeness without mention of Bennett...I would imagine.

Single Spies at the Oxford Playhouse was, candidly, my first experience of the famed playwright; an omission I have taken no pride in. It is shaped of two acts dealing with the fallout of the second world war, in Russia and in Britain.

The first, An Englishman Abroad, tells the true tale of a meeting between actress Coral Browne and a member of the Cambridge Five spy ring, Guy Burgess, in Moscow. My first impression of the show was the audience: whether it was the Monday evening showing or if it was just the make-up of Bennett's committed fans I do not know, but the average age of attendees seemed significantly higher than usual. This generational divide seemed to play a vital role in the first act and many of the jokes sailed comfortably over my oblivious young head, while my temporary companions laughed heartily along. I couldn't help feel the play had aged badly, and the relevance of 1960s espionage and communism held very little relevance to the younger audience, and I wonder if Single Spies is a better historical document than contemporary entertainment. Act two, A Question of Attribution, for me painted an entirely different portrait, one I enjoyed far more.

REVIEW: ★★☆☆

By Alex Ballinger

Maybe it was the imagined private conversation of our beloved HMQ (and her regal arrogance); or maybe it was Bennett's gorgeous allegory of spying and art-forgery; or maybe it is the unfolding wit to parallel's Oscar Wilde or Woody Allen. But whatever the reason the second act transforms the play from comedy to tragedy, if only because it ends. The players handle a complex script with style and masterfully perform with the exaggerated essence of 50s Hollywood, which can start to grate as the attention waivers in slower parts. While I still question if Bennett will hold his appeal for the younger generation, gorgeously designed sets oozing atmosphere sharpen the enjoyment and as first experiences go, it was not the worst I've had.

But I'll stick with Wilde.

Single Spies runs at the Beaumont Street venue until Saturday.

GYLES BRANDRETH: WORD POWER

Gyles tickled the Cornerstone audience with his previous show and returns by popular demand with his finely tuned treatise on how to find the right words to get the right results. Whether you want to woo your potential love interest or rule the world, you need words to do it. And Gyles is the man to explain how! Edinburgh Fringe award-winner, former MP, Just a Minute regular, The One Show reporter and doyen of many other witty radio and TV emissions, Gyles' shows are perfectly formed, very funny and rather indiscreet.

But the royals are out of cash, her helper is useless at spinning and the Prince just wants to be a shepherd. Everyone gets their threads in a twist and then Rumpel you-know-who steps in. Who is he, where does he come from and can they guess his real name before he gets them all in a spin? A woolly wonderland of a show brought to life with storytelling, music and puppetry.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Oscar Wilde's comic masterpiece is brought to the stage with an anarchic twist. It's energetic and full of all the usual oozing wit, as well as a few surprises including singing butlers, travel by means of musical montage and a post-interval Hollywood style recap. The Pantaloon is a young, vibrant theatre company whose style draws from a wide variety of popular theatre. In their theatre, the audience's imagination is just as important as the company's, and this show allows ours to run wild(e)! What's to like Classic comedy of manners with razor-sharp dialogue.

James Hunter is back with his latest album, Hold On! Hunter has been on the scene for enough years to acquire plenty of feathers in his cap: Billboard charts, Grammy nominations, and Van Morrison collaborations.

On top of all this, he has earned an international reputation as a rhythm and blues troubadour for his command of the microphone, both on stage and in studio. This album, however, is something far deeper than just another notch in his belt. It is truly an artist's vision come to fruition.

Half Term

Family fun this Easter

All-weather entertainment!

WE had arranged to take our four grandchildren out for a day over the October half term week as we do every year.

This year the weather was not looking too good, so we looked for somewhere that would be appropriate for dry and/or wet weather. We decided upon 4 Kingdoms in Thatcham, although we had never visited there before it looked ideal as it has a large indoor play area as well as outside facilities.

When we arrived it had recently been raining and was rather windy, so we started our day in the huge barn which contained climbing frames, go karts, a ball pit and animal pens. The children were keen to see the animals (we have four grandchildren aged from 3 to 12). When we got to the animal pens there were pigs, ponies, rabbits, sheep, and, of course Fred the ferret! Fred was being walked at that time and the children took turns to walk him around the pens. The keeper Carl was so passionate about his animals and took great delight in telling us all about Fred and his friends.

One other thing to note is that once you have paid your entrance ticket, everything is free, which, considering all the children made good use of all the rides, was excellent value for money. The go karts proved very popular indeed!

After lunch the weather improved and we ventured out into the large outdoor area, with bouncy castles, slides, more animals, trampolines just to mention a few!

Later in the afternoon we did the 'spooky walk' which was specifically for Halloween, very scary!

Overall we found the staff there extremely friendly and helpful, especially with the children, who thoroughly enjoyed the whole day. We will be returning there again, maybe on a warmer day where we will be able to enjoy the outside facilities even more.

I would thoroughly recommend a visit there, it is perfect for children of all ages, including me!

Honda CR-V 1.6 i-DTEC EX Manual

• The Honda CR-V

SINCE 1997 over 750,000 CR-Vs have been sold and it's already one of the most popular compact SUVs in the world. Those figures are not to be sniffed at either, because as I found out in my recent test, the CR-V is a brilliant machine.

Engine: The 1.6 Litre i-DTEC (160PS) with 350Nm of torque is a fantastic little diesel engine. This version is one of the best I have come across so far this year. The engine feels very refined and has bags of torque available in most gears. You won't be visiting the pumps much either as the CR-V is able to return a combined 55.4MPG.

On the road: A good ride height is a big plus point, as is the feel on the road. The suspension is well set up for all sorts of surfaces and around the corners it feels well planted to the road ahead. As with all compact SUVs it does feel top heavy – but then so does every other SUV you may care to mention.

Inside: The interior is of a good standard, its controls are well set out, and all the dials are clear. Space inside is good – you would easily fit in a very large family, and the mother in law, along with a couple of dogs if the need was there. Plus – everything inside the CR-V feels well put together. There is also no corner cutting when it comes to quality either – it feels very upmarket inside.

By Anthony Yates

Standard equipment with the EX model range includes heated front seats, full leather upholstery, 18" alloys, power tailgate, a panoramic glass roof, along with ABS & vehicle stability assist.

The list keeps going when it comes to entertainment – The Garmin navigation system, the 'Honda Connect System' with a 7" touch screen and CD/radio/DAB with USB support and internet browsing.

To sum up: If you are looking for one of the best compact SUV's on the market, you need look no further.

Price: £33,060 RRP not including fitted options.

PLANNING ACTS

Berinsfield Neighbourhood Plan Examination - Public hearing

John Parmiter FRICS FRSA MRTPI has been appointed to examine whether the Berinsfield Neighbourhood Development Plan meets the 'basic conditions' as set out in the Localism Act. He has requested a hearing to be held in public on Tuesday 12 April 2016.

This will be held in Berinsfield from 10 am at: Berinsfield Community Association, Green Furlong, Berinsfield, Oxfordshire, OX10 7NR.

The examiner will consider the comments submitted during the final consultation on the plan, and discussions at the hearing. This will be a hearing held in public that will be managed by the examiner, not a public meeting where everyone might have an opportunity to speak. The examiner will then write a report in which he will make an assessment about the neighbourhood plan's conformity with the 'basic conditions.'

The Blues are back

Oxford make it three on the trot with 5-1 win over Rangers

OXFORD CITY cruised back into the play-off places with a thumping 5-1 win over Concord Rangers at Court Place Farm on Tuesday night.

Declan Benjamin bagged a brace for the Blues with Jon Arzamendi, Reece Fleet and Conor McDonagh also grabbing goals as Oxford jumped to fifth with 52 points in the Vanarama Conference South.

The third win on the bounce sets up Oxford for a fascinating final eight games as they compete with Truro City, Gosport Borough and Hemel Hempstead Town for the final two-spots in the play-off places.

Arzamendi grabbed the opener in the fifth minute when the defender blasted home after a corner wasn't cleared.

Only 10 minutes later and it was two for Justin Merritt's side as Fleet slid the ball home to give Oxford some breathing space.

A third was then added with 23 minutes on the clock when Benjamin was allowed time and space to pick his spot with a guided finish into the net.

Merritt's men heading into half-time with the game wrapped up and McDonagh then added a fourth on the hour mark.

By Loughlan Campbell

Oxford were in full control with Concord looking downbeat and then Benjamin snatched his second with a stunning finish on the 65 minute mark.

Benjamin could have grabbed a hat-trick shortly afterwards when he was brought down in the box, but Concord 'keeper Ben MacNamara and got down well to save the effort.

City 'keeper Laurie Walker was unable to keep a clean sheet for the night as on 77 minutes Ben Greenhalgh netted a consolation for Rangers after a through ball from Steve Crawley picked him out by the box.

Oxford save the best for last in big win

OXFORD Hockey Club ladies' saved their strongest performance of the season for the last game as they swept London Wayfarers aside in their 5-0 win at home on Saturday.

From the opening minutes Oxford kept the third place Wayfarers on the back foot with some quick passing, before taking the lead in the fourth minute when Estelle Strambolie fired past the stranded 'keeper.

Anabelle Denly doubled the lead with a clean finish from a penalty corner.

Shortly afterwards, man of the match Kim Haynes scored her first of the game with an overhead smash to make it 3-0 and Catherine Reaney made it four before the half-time whistle.

The second half was a more evenly matched affair as the Wayfarers won a string of penalty corners.

Reaney was then left with a clear chance late in the game that she fired over the bar.

The final goal came from a Denly set up when she danced past the defence on the right and delivered a perfect cross for Haynes' second.

Oxford Ladies' finish the season eighth in the South League Division Two and will retain their spot there for another season.

Millers kiss goodbye to play-off hopes after United drubbing

NORTH Leigh's hopes to get into the play-offs were dealt a crushing blow as they were beaten 4-0 by Mangotsfield United at Eynsham Park on Saturday.

The game proved to be one to forget for the Millers but they did start brightly through George Seacole on seven minutes with a wide header.

Ben Taylor, who was in the Millers' net for James Foster, prevented a certain goal from Nick Dunn's header shortly afterwards.

The opener for United came on 35 minutes as a deep cross into the left wing was headed into the six-yard box for Ben Bament to blast the ball in from close range.

Leigh's second half then began in disaster as after two minutes, midfielder Rickie Scott picked up the ball and fired home from 25 yards.

It got worse for the Millers as only two minutes later, centre-back Scott Brice powerfully headed home at the near post to cement the visitors' lead.

Leigh were unable to break down the United defence and Mangotsfield inflicted more woe on 78 minutes when Brice snatched a fourth, clipping a shot into the net from five yards rounding out the scoring.

O'Dowda nets double as U's win at Barnet

CALLUM O'DOWDA bagged a brace as Oxford United ran out 3-0 winners over Barnet at the Hive on Saturday.

The winger bagged his fourth and fifth goal of the season in the win that also saw Danny Hylton net late on in the second half to make it seven away wins from eight for the Yellow.

O'Dowda nearly grabbed the opener on two minutes but his shot was kept out by Barnet 'keeper Jamie Stephens.

Curtis Weston then forced U's 'keeper Benji Buchel into making a save shortly afterwards before a Liam Sercombe shot was kept out on the half hour mark by Stephens.

The Bees rallied towards the end of the half but U's defenders Chey Dunkley and Johnny Mullins managed to keep the home side out.

On 52 minutes, United had their opener as O'Dowda drifted towards the Barnet goal from the left, burst forward and unleashed an effort that was deflected back to the Irishman who slid it into the net.

Alex MacDonald and Roofe both came close with efforts shortly after the opener before O'Dowda grabbed his second, with the youngster using MacDonald as a decoy in a flowing team move from the U's.

He fired his effort at Stephens who blocked it away before the Kidlington winger then reacted fastest to tap home to double the U's lead.

George Waring had a shot blocked away shortly afterwards after turning quickly in the box with his shot deflected wide.

Barnet's Andy Yiadom was denied on 83 minutes by a smart stop by Buchel before Hylton sealed the win, calmly sliding home after being picked out perfectly by John Lundstram.

The win gives United a better grip on their second-place position in Sky Bet League Two as the U's maintained their five point gap over third-placed Bristol Rovers.

Blues batter High Wycombe with huge win

WITNEY RFC recorded a triumphant 64-5 win over High Wycombe at Hailey Road on Saturday to make it 10 wins out of the Blues' last 12 games.

The Blues grabbed their first try of the game after just four minutes with fly-half George Lewis outpacing the Wycombe backs to cross before converting his effort.

A swift pass out to Lewis from Louis Collins then led to an easy second before adding the conversion for a 14-0 score. Henry Lamb, who was moved into fly half crossed and then converted his own try.

Shortly afterwards, Lamb bagged his second try of the day, jinking his way to the line after good work from Scott Mortimer before missing the conversion for a 26-0 lead at half-time for Witney.

Collins then outpaced Wycombe backs to score by the posts on 46 minutes before Lewis converted and Matt Clarke then side-stepped his way over the line for an unconverted try.

The tries kept coming for Witney and substitute Richard Haire sprinted 15 metres through numerous tackles to get over the line.

Wycombe managed to snatch a try through prop Henry Wyse before Charlie Bennett, Clarke and Lamb crossed for three more tries with the fly half bagging his hat-trick to round out the tries for the home side. Witney lie in fourth in the South West 1 East table, only three points behind third-placed Newbury Blues.

Chinnor's winning run ends in Clifton defeat

• Sam Angell kicks a conversion effort (picture by Aaron Bayliss)

CHINNOR RFC's hot streak was cooled on Saturday after they were defeated for the first time in four games with a 29-26 away loss to Clifton.

The first points went to the away side as Chinnor's captain James Tyas went over the line in the corner before the kick was unconverted.

With 20 minutes on the board, Chinnor then extended their lead through a Sam Angell penalty before a well-worked move from Clifton saw Will Pumphrey snatch an unconverted try.

The home side then took the lead through two penalties by fly-half Will Mackay while Angell also kicked for another three points for Chinnor.

Tyas bagged his second try in a fast team move before another Mackay penalty brought the first half to a close at 16-14 to Chinnor.

Clifton stole an early lead through a Mackay penalty before Angell responded with a kick for the away side.

Chinnor's defence then buckled as Chinnor's flanker Rhys Luckwell and Mackay both crossed the line to seize the initiative for the home side.

Mackay sealed two of the conversion attempts before Chinnor sealed one last try through Nathan Hannay but it was too late for the away side.

Greens close cap with win over rivals

KIDLINGTON FC blew the race for the Hellenic Premier League title wide open with a win over league leaders That-cham Town at Waterside Park on Tuesday night.

The result was the Green's ninth straight league win and brings them within two points of the Kingfishers, and Martin Wilkinson's side also have three games in hand on them.

Anacleth Odhiambo and Ryan Brooks bagged the goals for the Greens who look favourites to seal the title and win promotion to the Southern Football League Division.

Wilkinson's side bossed the early proceedings and nearly snatched the opener on 10 minutes through Tommy Castle who blazed a shot over.

Eric Odhiambo then missed a great chance in the 18th minute when the forward tried his luck from the edge of the box but the shot was just wide.

The goal for Kidlington finally came on 60 minutes when Anacleth Odhiambo fired home from eight yards.

Brooks added the second in the 88th minute, receiving Castle's ball on the counter attack and firing home.

Stars' final game

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars are all set to play their final game of the regular NIHL South 1 season at Milton Keynes Thunder on Sunday.

The Stars head into the game off the back of a stunning 7-1 win over lowly Bracknell Hornets at Oxpens Road.

The game against the Thunder will be followed by the back-to-back play-off ties against Streatham Redskins on the weekend of April 2-3.

U's nominated

FOOTBALL: Oxford United are in the running for two prestigious awards at the annual Football League Awards.

The U's have been named on a shortlist for the Family Club of the Year and star forward Kemar Roofe's long-range strike at Brentford has been named as one of top ten contenders for Goal of the Season.

To vote for Roofe's screamer, head to football-league.co.uk.

United to drop

FOOTBALL: Abingdon United will finish their season in the relegation places after Bracknell Town's 2-1 win over Highmoor Ibis on Saturday made it mathematically impossible for the U's to get to safety.

United have three games left in the season to play and lie 19th in the table on 21 points, 11 points away from safety.

U's boss Steve Alman previously told the Guardian the club would have to wait until the end of the season to know if the club will be relegated.

Wantage denied by late equaliser

A LATE equaliser denied Wantage Town an away win at Bridgwater Town in a 1-1 draw on Saturday.

Stuart Cattell's side nearly grabbed all three points after Sam Barder netted the opener early in the second half, before an 83rd minute equaliser from Harry Horton ended matters level.

Barder bought himself space on the edge of the box with 18 minutes gone but his subsequent shot was deflected away.

Wantage got another opportunity on 40 minutes when Barder crossed in for Mark Francis to play in Gio Wrona but the forward's shot was just wide.

Wantage grabbed their goal on 57 minutes when Freds 'keeper Ed Cavanagh sent the ball in deep for Barder to take it on and sweep the ball home from 25 yards out.

Bridgwater threw everybody forward to try snatch the reply and Horton found it in the final 10 minutes as the player's run into the box wasn't tracked and he fired home to claim the point.

Renault just shy of getting points

RENAULT just missed out on scoring points on their return to Formula One as a constructor at the Australian Grand Prix on Sunday.

Rookie driver Jolyon Palmer finished 11th with Kevin Magnussen 12th in Melbourne, in what was an eventful race at the Albert Park circuit.

Magnussen suffered a puncture on the first lap which dropped him to the back, and he found himself a lap down early on as a result.

By Adam Flinn

Palmer was running just outside the top-10, before the race was halted following a horrific crash between Esteban Gutierrez and Fernando Alonso, which saw the McLaren driver's car launch through the air and land upside down, completely destroyed.

Amazingly, neither driver was injured in the crash.

The stoppage allowed Magnussen to regain the lap he had lost, while Palmer made use of the medium tyres to jump ahead of the Toro Rossos into the points.

However they were able to climb back past, leaving Palmer and Magnussen to settle for 11th and 12th.

"I think the team has done an incredible job this weekend to qualify in Q2 and then finishing the race in 11th and 12th, it's the maximum we could expect to achieve," said Palmer.

"It's a good start, we were so close to scoring points, and we can move forward from here."

"The race itself was busy but good fun, and I absolutely loved being wheel to wheel again after a year out." Magnussen added: "We have a really good car, the pace is strong, as is the baseline setup."

"You never want to see a red flag incident, and it's a positive statement that Fernando could walk away from that dramatic crash."

"Our pace after the restart was very promising so I'm excited for the next races."

The race was won the Mercedes of Nico Rosberg, with his team-mate and reigning world champion Lewis Hamilton in second and the Ferrari of Sebastian Vettel third.

Renault will be hoping to grab points in the next race at the Sakhir circuit in Bahrain on April 3.
